For four years she and her husband explored the oceans, Europe and the Caribbean by sailboat. She is inspired on her travels by nature, people and music.

Tania exhibited in Oman and Panama. She created murals and paintings on commission.

She enjoys leading workshops, inspiring others to express themselves using their imagination and creativity.

Desiree Rader's passion for art started in early childhood. What began as a hobby became a way of life.

In the countries where she has lived, The Netherlands, Canada, Nigeria, Oman, and Dubai, she partook in extensive art studies followed by art academy in The Netherlands. She has been actively involved in art exhibitions in Oman, The Netherlands and Dubai.

Most of her artwork typically contains an Arabian touch, with expressive and inspiring colours. Her work is inspired by living in the Middle East for more than 12 years.
